TASI market commentary

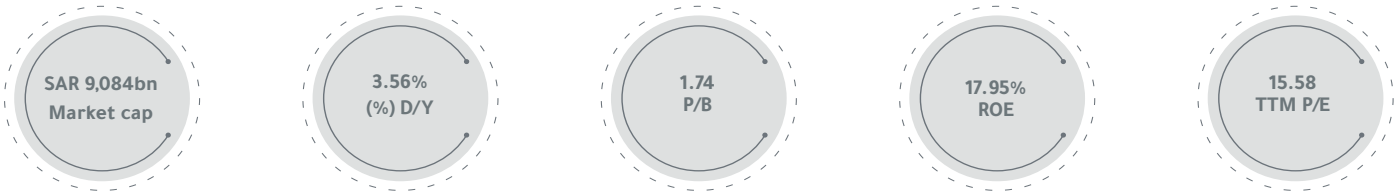

- TASI experienced a decline on Sunday, impacted by the fall of all heavy weight sectors. At close, the Saudi market ended the day with a change of -0.84% at 9,838. In terms of activity, total volumes and value traded were ~198mn and ~SAR 3.1bn, respectively. The advance-decline ratio came in at 44/220.

Technical outlook

- TASI closed the last session near 9,838, registering a decline of 83 points. The index experienced a persistent profit-booking attitude, pushing it downward to test the support zone of the 38.2%-50% Fibonacci levels near 9,800-9,715, where buying sentiment may reappear. TASI formed a red-bodied candlestick, reflecting the current temporary profit-booking attitude. Moreover, the RSI indicator continued hovering laterally below the level of 50. TASI has an immediate support level around 9,800. If breached, the subsequent support levels would be around 9,715-9,630. On the other hand, an immediate resistance level is seen around 9,925. If successfully surpassed, the subsequent resistance levels to watch for would be around 10,060-10,100. Traders are advised to closely monitor the critical support zone of around 9,800-9,715, waiting for a positive candlestick.
